

NON-ACCREDITED ESOL COURSES

works for us

Part of Citizens Advice Milton Keynes

What are Non-Accredited Classes?

These are informal, flexible English conversation classes at foundation level. They help learners build basic skills before starting college ESOL courses. They are short term and designed to prepare you for further education. Non-accredited classes are a perfect first step. Attend often, be brave, join in, and practice English at home.

Benefits

- Build confidence in speaking
- Meet new people
- Learn about everyday English (doctor visits, work, school, safety)
- Prepare for volunteering or applying to college

Where can you study in Milton Keynes?

Works for Us - English Conversation (basic or elementary)

Free to attend

Website: www.worksforus.org.uk

Encouragement: To go alongside volunteering, online learning to prepare you for college or work.

Community Learning MK - Christ the Cornerstone Church

Monday 1pm-3pm

Tuesday 1pm-3pm and 6pm-8:30pm (pre-entry)

Thursday 6pm-8:30pm

Fee: £20 one-off

Contact: nicola.skelton@milton-keynes.gov.uk

MK Library - Free conversation group

Thursday 11am-12noon

Email to join: library.enquiries@milton-keynes.gov.uk

Suggestions

- Keep a notebook of new words
- Practice English in shops, libraries, and with friends, speak English at home
- Register early for future college courses
- Speak with your team about volunteering and getting online to practice independently
- Combine classes with online learning (see next guide)

